FROM THE RECTOR

Summer Time, and the Living Is Easy

The days are longer, the weather is nice, the promise of vacation hangs in the air. It must be summer time.

It is traditional in many Episcopal churches, including Holy Trinity, to slow down in the summer. Communion and worship still happen, shut-ins are still visited, and the work of the church continues, but as our programs take a break, it allows times for reflection and preparation for the fall.

For the last several months, I have been talking about our Core Values, as identified by the Vestry at our February Vestry retreat. I have talked about how Worship is central to our identity as Christians (and especially Episcopal Christians); I have also talked about how Mission/Outreach is the natural response to our encounter with God in worship. In both, we look for the inspiration and movement of the Holy Spirit, directing our worship to a God who is active in the world, and inviting us to participate in his already-occurring work of reconciliation—gathering all creation back to God's self.

As we rest and relax for the summer, I want to talk about our last three Core Values because all five are front-and-center in our plans for the fall. The remaining three values are Hospitality, Fellowship, and Formation—and really, they all go together.

Since arriving at Holy Trinity, we have seen steady and consistent growth. Our Sunday attendance is up from last year, to 92 people on a Sunday. But more than that, we have consistently seen new families visiting Holy Trinity on a near weekly basis. They are attracted to the comfortable, kind, and welcoming character of the church. And this points us to one of our essential core values: Hospitality. As Christians, we are called to welcome everyone, not just into the church, but into our lives and into the life of Christ. To encourage this, the vestry and I have discussed and are implementing new ministries and changes that will make everyone feel welcome when they step into Holy Trinity. From their first visit to our website or Facebook page to their first visit to the church to their first participation in one of our activities, we want to be intentional about welcoming and including visitors into the life of the church. Because, at one time or another, we have all been visitors at Holy Trinity, and we know that today's visitors are tomorrow's vestry members, lay leaders, and Eucharistic Ministers. We want to make it easy to call Holy Trinity home.

The Rev. Ben Maddison

Closely related to Hospitality is our other core value of Fellowship. The church isn't just a place where we receive the sacraments, hear sermons, and learn about Jesus. Holy Trinity is our home-away-from-home. Holy Trinity is a family. Fellowship is what makes the family bonds stronger and brings the family together. The vestry and I are committed to making more opportunities—both official and unofficial—to bring the whole church together. We tend to think that Jesus fed his disciples so their mouths would be full and he could get some teaching done, but that's not the picture we get in the Bible. Jesus goes to weddings, and dinner parties, and cocktail parties. Fellowship is an important part of the church; it strengthens the body of Christ, helps incorporate new members into that life; and helps us "bear each other's burdens" (Gal 6:2), both good and bad.

Finally, the last core value and my personal favorite is Formation. The church is a place where we worship God, where we participate in God's work in the community, where we welcome newcomers, and where we fellowship with one another to strengthen the bonds of friendship and faith within the family of God. But we also want to learn something too! The vestry and I are committed to providing quality opportunities for Christian Formation for members of all ages. From the youngest kid to the oldest adult, we hope to provide places where tough questions can be asked, where faith can be cultivated and nurtured, and where we can grow into the full stature of Christ (Eph 4:13).

Those are the core values of Holy Trinity! The vestry and I have been intentional about couching all our work around these five areas: Worship, Mission/Outreach, Formation, Fellowship, and Hospitality. As you read the rest of this issue of the Banner, begin to think about how each of our upcoming activities fit into the various Core Values.

But, if you want to wait until after summer is over to do all that hard work—it's okay by me. Rest, relax, and rejuvenate. Because when fall comes, we will be going at a lightning pace. God's calling us; let's take this break to listen to what God's saying.

In Christ,

NOTES FROM THE JUNIOR WARDEN

Mr. Steve LoCastro, Jr.
Junior Warden

This summer we'll be revisiting Genesis—fundamental scripture that continues to encourage, challenge, and often confuse us. We'll hear of Abraham and his near-sacrifice of Isaac. Of Jacob being born with his brother's heel in his hand. Of Joseph being sold to the Midianites. The story of this unusual family is the bedrock for our form of worship, and there's something new to be found with each reading. What detail haven't you noticed before? What new inspiration can be found from this six-thousand-year-old story?

We'll continue to cover the major events of Genesis in these upcoming weeks. Due to time restraints, though, many long passages must be omitted. We encourage you to fill in the gaps during the week to connect what we cover on Sundays.

For example, what happens in between Joseph being sold into slavery and then revealing himself to his brothers as the new lord of Egypt? We can only cover so much on Sundays! Why not make Genesis your summer reading this year? It will be perfect preparation for the new Wednesday Bible Study this fall, which will cover, you guessed it, Genesis!

INTRODUCING THE NEW ECW PRESIDENT

Dear Holy Trinity,

On Tuesday, June 12th, I was elected the new President of the Episcopal Church Women (ECW) at Holy Trinity.

My term will begin this September. I will be following Phyllis Joslin who has been running this ministry for several years and has decided to step down from the position. We cannot begin to thank her enough for the wonderful job she has done keeping the ECW running like a well-oiled machine.

I have been a member for almost three years since my family and I joined Holy Trinity. I was vice-president and president for 8 years at Christ Church in Woodbury.

I feel that will help me to guide our ECW in the same positive direction as Phyllis has. I look forward to inviting the women of the church in "a Program of Worship, Study, Service, Fellowship and Gifts" as stated in the ECW Constitution.

I look forward to seeing all the women of Holy Trinity in September. Come see what we are all about! There will be more information on our meetings and events as September approaches. Please look for your invitation this August.

Yours in Christ,

Nancy Garvin

Mrs. Nancy Garvin
ECW President

Tuesday, July 4 at 8:30 AM, come cheer us on as Holy Trinity participates in Wenonah's Fourth of July Parade.

If you want to come to the parade, you will want to arrive by 8 AM, as its gets pretty crowded. Feel free to park at or near the church and then walk to Mantua Blvd.

MINISTRY UPDATES

CHICKEN BARBECUE

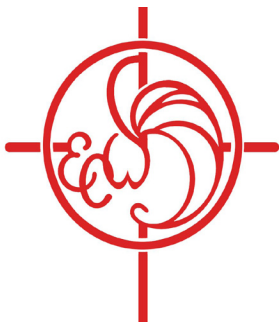

This year's annual chicken barbecue was a great success. Donations approached the $3800 mark. We actually totally sold out of chickens by approximately 6:15, which has never happened before!

Once again, thanks to everyone who participated in many different ways, especially the committee, led by Gary and Carla Henderson. We offer special thanks to several people who not only gave additional donations, but who also donated purchased tickets, enabling us to send 18 dinners to the IHN families and support staff at Zion Methodist Church in Clarksboro.

Gary Henderson

EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN (ECW)

Such a satisfying meeting happens in June, as we get to decide how to disburse the funds raised throughout the year. Just look at all the lives you have touched by way of the following organizations:

Trinity Cathedral; Aged and Infirm Clergy; Widows, Widowers and Orphans; Brotherhood of St. Andrew; Covenant House; District ECW outreach programs; Kids' Alley Cafe; Kitchen of Hope; Seeds of Hope; Unforgotten Haven; and Dream Catchers.

We are especially proud of our work with Thistle Farms, a ministry to women exiting the sex-trafficking industry. They are a wonderful ministry and a great place to find lovely gifts as well. We encourage you to visit their website.

Information about these groups can be found on the internet. We also have funds available for the teens to redecorate their space in the Sunday School wing, underwrite a portion of the church picnic, and purchase several needed items for the church. Thank you to our wonderful Holy Trinity family, without whom most of this would not have happened.

Thank you also to Nancy Garvin, who was willing to run for the office of President. We know that she will provide great leadership, and that folks will support her as we all move forward.

We wish everyone a happy, safe, and restful summer, and look forward to meeting again in September.

Our next meeting is Monday, Sept. 11 at 7:00 PM in the Parish Hall.

ECW YARDSALE UPDATE

Wow! What a successful Yard and Bake Sale we had on Saturday, April 29th. I want to thank everyone who was involved from start to finish; the ECW women and members of the Church who were involved in the set-up, the generous donations of delicious baked goods and to those who provided yard sale items. The success of the sale would not have been possible without all of you. The yard Sale income was $578.60 and the Bake Sale income was $288.75. The total is $867.35.

Items that were not sold will be donated to Ranch Hope Thrift Shop in Pennsville, New Jersey.

Thank you again to all of the volunteers who helped to make this event a huge success!

MEN'S MINISTRY

Thank you to everyone who came out to support the All Parish Brunch on May 7. We had an excellent turnout and it was a great time for fellowship with one another.

Men's Ministry is on break for the summer, but look forward to the return of Sunday Brunch and new activities in the Fall.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Sunday School is on break for the Summer.

Thank you to all the teachers who make Sunday School possible. We appreciate your hard work and dedication to our children.

Stay tuned for some exciting changes to our Sunday School program coming this fall.

Sunday School starts again Sept. 17 at 9 AM.

OUTREACH UPDATES

BRIGHT BEGINNINGS AT THE YMCA

Last year several Holy Trinity members represented us at the Bright Beginnings outreach program, sponsored by the local YMCA. This program provides children in need with new clothes and school supplies to begin the new school year. Last year over 60 children in our community were provided brand new jackets, two outfits, shoes and a book bag filled with school supplies for the start of the school year.

How can you become involved in this outreach? There are two ways. First, you can volunteer to be a Bright Beginnings Shopping Buddy. You help a child shop for new clothes at a local Walmart. It takes about two hours of your time on a Saturday morning and the desire to help a child. The YMCA provides the transportation and money for you and your child to go shopping. You also receive a free t-shirt and a great breakfast! Second, you can participate by donating money. The Y depends on the generosity of individuals, organizations and corporations of the community. Donations will be accepted now through August 2017.

Jackie Gould

Donations will be accepted now through August 2017.

Save the date, Saturday, August 26, 2017. Won't you join Roger Savage and Jackie Gould in this outreach program? Interested in volunteering or making a donation? Contact Kathy Rhead at krhead@ymcagloco.org.

INTERFAITH HOSPITALITY NETWORK (IHN)

Within Family Promise we have the opportunity to express our Christian faith by putting words into actions. Our Lord said that "what you do to the least of mine you do to me."

There are few greater difficulties in life than trying to raise a young family and losing your home. That is where we come in. At Holy Trinity, we offer families in Gloucester County a home for a week that is warm, inviting and fun. Our guests have a difficult life while staying with us, so we try to make it as comfortable and welcoming as possible.

The good news is that ALL the families that we hosted in May will be graduating in 4-6 weeks. Many full-time jobs have been found, cars have been secured, and Catholic Charities is offering to pay for half of their security deposits on new apartments. Family Promise is helping the families acquire the skills necessary to help them in the future, including money management, job training, and resume building classes, as well as family counseling.

Even as families are graduating from the program, 21 more families are on the waiting list. Our work is needed now more than ever. Our work with Family Promise is making an impact in the lives of the families we help. We are helping those in our community that need a little lift at the most difficult time in their lives. Thank you to our Family Promise volunteers; you are a committed and loving group that is impacting the lives of people in need. You help our guests feel at home and forget the stress of their situation. I thank God for your participation, and for our ability to participate in God's work through Family Promise in Gloucester County.

Sean Garvin

If you would like to get connected to IHN, or find out ways you can volunteer, email Sean Garvin at ilvmaine@comcast.net. IHN will return two more times:

August 20-26
December 10-16

KITCHEN OF HOPE (KOH)

School is out and the kids are home for the summer. For many children, it is time for some type of summer camp. However, for many families living at or below the national poverty level, this is not an option. These families now have children at home who normally received breakfast and lunch at school. Parents must worry about providing two more meals per day per child. In many cases parents are eating less or skipping a meal in order to feed their children. It isn't easy working when you are hungry.

Now more than ever, we need to collect food for the Kitchen of Hope, so children will not go hungry during the day. Non-perishable items such as cold cereals, canned vegetables and fruits, mac'n'cheese, canned tuna, individual snack packs, juice boxes, etc. are needed. Many of us will be away enjoying the summer break, but these children will not. Please help the kids.

If you would prefer to make a donation to the Kitchen of Hope, it would be very much appreciated. Your contribution would enable KOH to purchase food at the Food Bank of South Jersey for 18 cents/per pound. This is a bargain! If you would like to contribute monthly, speak to me for the Kitchen of Hope's account number.

Thanks for your continuing support of this important outreach mission.

Jackie Gould

On the second Friday of each month, we need volunteers to deliver the food (8:45 AM). Then the next day (Saturday, at 9 AM), we pack the food at St. Thomas. For more information, contact Jackie Gould at jegould771@comcast.net. Our next KOH days are July 14 & 15.

KITCHEN OF HOPE BASKET AUCTION - SEPTEMBER 30

The Kitchen of Hope will be sponsoring its second annual basket auction fund-raiser on September 30 of this year at the Moose Lodge in Clementon (2425 S White Horse Pike, Lindenwold, NJ 08021).

Proceeds from the event will be used to purchase food for the monthly distributions for families in need.

As many as 125 auction baskets will be available, along with two large screen televisions, and a variety of other premium items. The price to get in the door is only $10, which will include a quantity of basket auction tickets.

Look for tickets to be sold at Holy Trinity in the coming weeks. We will also be seeking basket items.

THE GREENING OF THE CHURCH...IN JULY?

No, we are not celebrating Christmas in July; we are talking a different type of “greening.” We mean green energy!

In the past, groups have come in and given us a cost estimate for updating our facilities to be more energy efficient, including the subsequent savings to the church. Usually, they came back too expensive and with too little savings to make much difference. However, the state of New Jersey is offering a significant incentive to encourage non-profits to make their campuses more energy efficient—more “green.”

Through this Direct Install program, New Jersey is picking up 70% of the cost of updating all the light fixtures (switching to LED) as well as replacing the two narthex air conditioning units. Both of these will generate significant savings for the church.

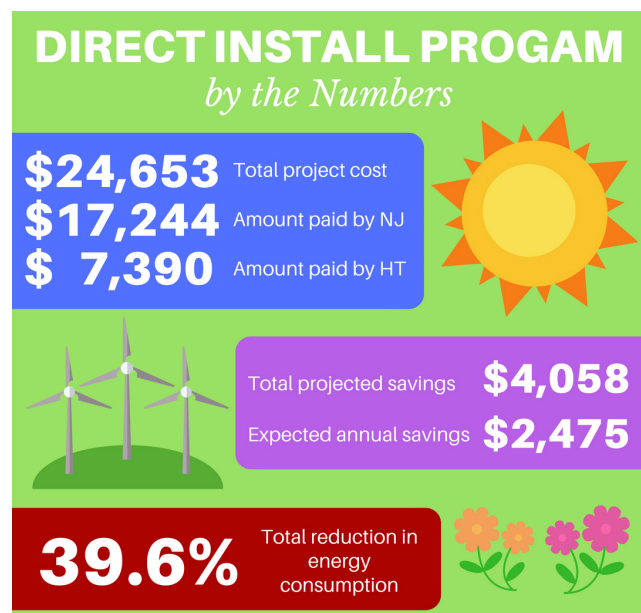

The total cost of our participation in the program is $7390.68. We have been offered a three-year, interest-free loan from the gas company to cover the cost. With the amount we are estimated to save in a year’s utility bills, the program should pay for itself in three years, at which point, the saving would continue. The Direct Install program also comes with a five-year warranty on all parts, so if anything should happen to the new lights or a/c units, we are covered for five years.

Our participation in this program addresses three important issues for Holy Trinity. First, it reduces our annual utility expense. Typically, this cost is relatively fixed (and generally increasing), so any reduction is beneficial for our annual expenditures. If we do save the estimated $2500 a year, that’s more money for missions and outreach.

Second, it helps us replace aging equipment that is due for replacement in the near future. The air conditioning units are 20-years old; the average life-span of an a/c unit is 10-15 years (although we don’t use it continuously, so we could expect to get several more years out of it.) Participating in this program helps us replace the air conditioning units cheaply, while also shifting our thinking from short-term, patch-work to long-term sustainability.

Finally, “greening” the church represents not only good financial and facility stewardship but stewardship for God’s creation. The Fifth Mark of Mission of the “Five Marks of Mission” for the Episcopal Church (and the broader Anglican Communion) is “To strive to safeguard the integrity of creation and sustain and renew the life of the earth.” In a small way, we are helping safeguard and sustain our planet by using fewer resources and making our church more energy efficient.

We are waiting for a few more documents to be received, stamped, mailed, whatever the state does with it, but the hope is that the work would be completed by the fall. If you have any questions about our participation in the Direct Install program, please reach out to our Rector, Ben Maddison, or any member of the vestry for more information.

PARISH LIFE

BIRTHDAY!

O God, our times are in your hand: Look with favor, we pray, on your servants who celebrate birthdays this month as they begin another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.
